Hello Friends!

HARVEST MxD IS LAUNCHING!!!

As you're reading this, Villy is in Zambia after having just been in South Africa, launching Harvest MxD! He is joined by Pappa Böhmer, making this an even more special time of ministry. This is an exciting and faith-filled season, and we are beyond grateful to have YOU on this journey with us.

GOD IS ON THE MOVE!

We've already seen miracle after miracle, and we HAVE to share two testimonies with you!

Testimony #1 – LOST & FOUND in Istanbul

During a nine-hour layover in Istanbul, Villy and his ministry partner on this trip, Michael Lavrenz, went to explore a bit—until he lost his phone. Gone. Vanished. No sign of it anywhere. He thinks it fell out of his backpack in a taxi—either the zipper broke, or the phone just decided it had enough of all the selfies. Either way, it was GONE.

Me? I started to stress. Villy? Completely calm. “God’s got this,” he said.

Fast forward—he gets back to the airport, feels “led” to go to the taxi rank to ask if anyone had happened to turn in a phone... AND GUESS WHAT?! SOMEONE DID!!! We serve a miracle-working, awe-inspiring, phone-returning God! NOTHING is so lost that He cannot restore!

(And for the record: Villy does NOT take selfies unless under severe duress from his wife!)

Testimony #2 – A Divine Tune-Up!

Villy and Michael were fetched at the airport by our dear friend Ashton. Years ago, Ashton was one of the students who passed through our ministry, and he has remained a steadfast encouragement to us, faithfully serving the Lord.

On the way to the airport, Ashton’s brand-new truck (4,000 miles on it) had a transmission failure and wouldn’t drive. After letting it cool down, he pushed forward—warning light and all. But when Villy and Michael got in the truck and Ashton restarted it, the warning light was gone! Ashton laughed and said, “Oh, it’s fixed!”

Villy asked what had happened, and Ashton simply replied that it must have been them getting in. He went on to say that the enemy had clearly been fighting this trip—because God must have something incredible in store!

The transmission light never came back on, and when he later took it to the dealership, they found nothing wrong. Yet another reminder that when God has a plan, no attack of the enemy can stop it!
